

TRIBUTE/WACKO

A South African a'capella group, "D-Seven", will be paying tribute to pop icon Michael Jackson in Cape Town this weekend. The group's promoters say "D-Seven" will devote a large section of its' programme to Jackson's worldwide hits during a performance at a hotel in Camps Bay on Saturday evening. They will also sing other well known a' capella compositions without instrumental accompaniment. Jackson was laid to rest in Los Angeles yesterday after suffering cardiac arrest on June the 25 at the age of 50. More news on the arts front is Themis Venturas frank adult play, "My First Time", has opened at the NewSpace Theatre in the Mother City. The show deals with losing one's innocence.
